Applications for Patron's Tickets

For the last several years, we have sold Patron's tickets, which entitled holders to a host of special benefits. This increasingly popular program provides the following:

- Unobstructed "ringside" seating, overlooking the pipe band arena.
- Coffee & doughnuts available from 8 AM.
- Voucher ticket for your choice of lunch items.
- Special "Patrons Only" tent with tables and chairs.
- Special nearby parking area.
- Souvenir "Patron's ribbon."
- Reserved portalets next to tent.

Cost:

A real "Scottish bargain" at $35 a ticket, or $60 a couple.

This application must be received by August 16th (limited number may be available at gate on day of Festival).

Proceeds from The Quechee Scottish Festival go to the Saint Andrew's Society of Vermont scholarship fund. Each year several scholarships are given to worthy applicants, many of whom use their awards to further their studies of Scottish heritage, dance and music. So . . . while you enjoy the day's events, a part of your admission fee is going to a most worthy cause!
